

LIVEN UP - Join the CHAI PROGRAMME starting this autumn at St Johns Wood. Chai means 'Life' and Chai 'ח' stands for 18.

We challenge you to liven up your year by adding 18 (Chai) hours of Jewish study – that's simply 3 six week terms of an hour a week! Choose from a range of courses and study options.

Registration Evening: Tuesday 11th November 2003, 8.00 pm at St Johns Wood Synagogue, 37-41 Grove End Road, London NW8 9NG

One-to-One Study

Organised by Chazan Moshe Haschel: Is there a subject that you would like to study? Come along to the Bet Midrash on Tuesday evenings and we will organise a tutor for you.

Jewish Interactive Studies

St Johns Wood is linking-up with the Jewish Interactive Studies (JIS) organisation in Israel, headed by Rabbi Moshe Zauderer. They offer excellent, on-line courses, based on classic Jewish texts that can be pursued in one's own time. The JIS staff are available to correspond with students on an individual basis.

On One Leg – the short, sharp, guide to Jewish belief and practice by Dayan Ivan Binstock

Term 1: Essentials of Jewish Belief (3 sessions) and the Kaddish Konnection (3 sessions).

Living Jewish – the new interactive guide to Jewish life produced by the UJIA

You should have received your free copy of this information-packed CD ROM. You can easily clock-up your first 6 hours by clicking away at home! A trainer from the UJIA will be present on our Registration Evening to help you get the best out of your CD.

Increase the Personal Meaning of your Prayer

- a three week course, led by Rebbetzen Rachel Binstock, commencing 3 December. (This course is being run in association with the Sephardi Centre, Lauderdale Road)

The Sidra Scene

Insights into the weekly Torah portion with Rabbi Stephen Sacks.

Your Choice

If you would like to follow a course or study programme, alone or with a family member at home, come along to the Registration Evening and we will do our best to assist you.

Plus our regular ongoing shiurim:

Weekly Talmud Classes

Massechet Gittin with Dayan Binstock. Tuesday mornings at 10.30am.

Massechet Makkot with Alexander Grunfeld. Sunday mornings at 9.15 am.
