

Judaism Alive

70 Years of the NHS

A series exploring key issues of Health and the Community

dsproductions.co.uk

BOOK ONLINE AT www.shulinthewood.com

ST JOHN'S WOOD
SYNAGOGUE

THE SAATCHI
קהלת סעאטי
SYNAGOGUE

£10 PER SESSION
Refreshments will be served

CPD points are available for attending this course

6TH NOVEMBER 2018 | 8.15 PM

Ending Life

13TH NOVEMBER 2018 | 8.00 PM

An End to Antibiotics?

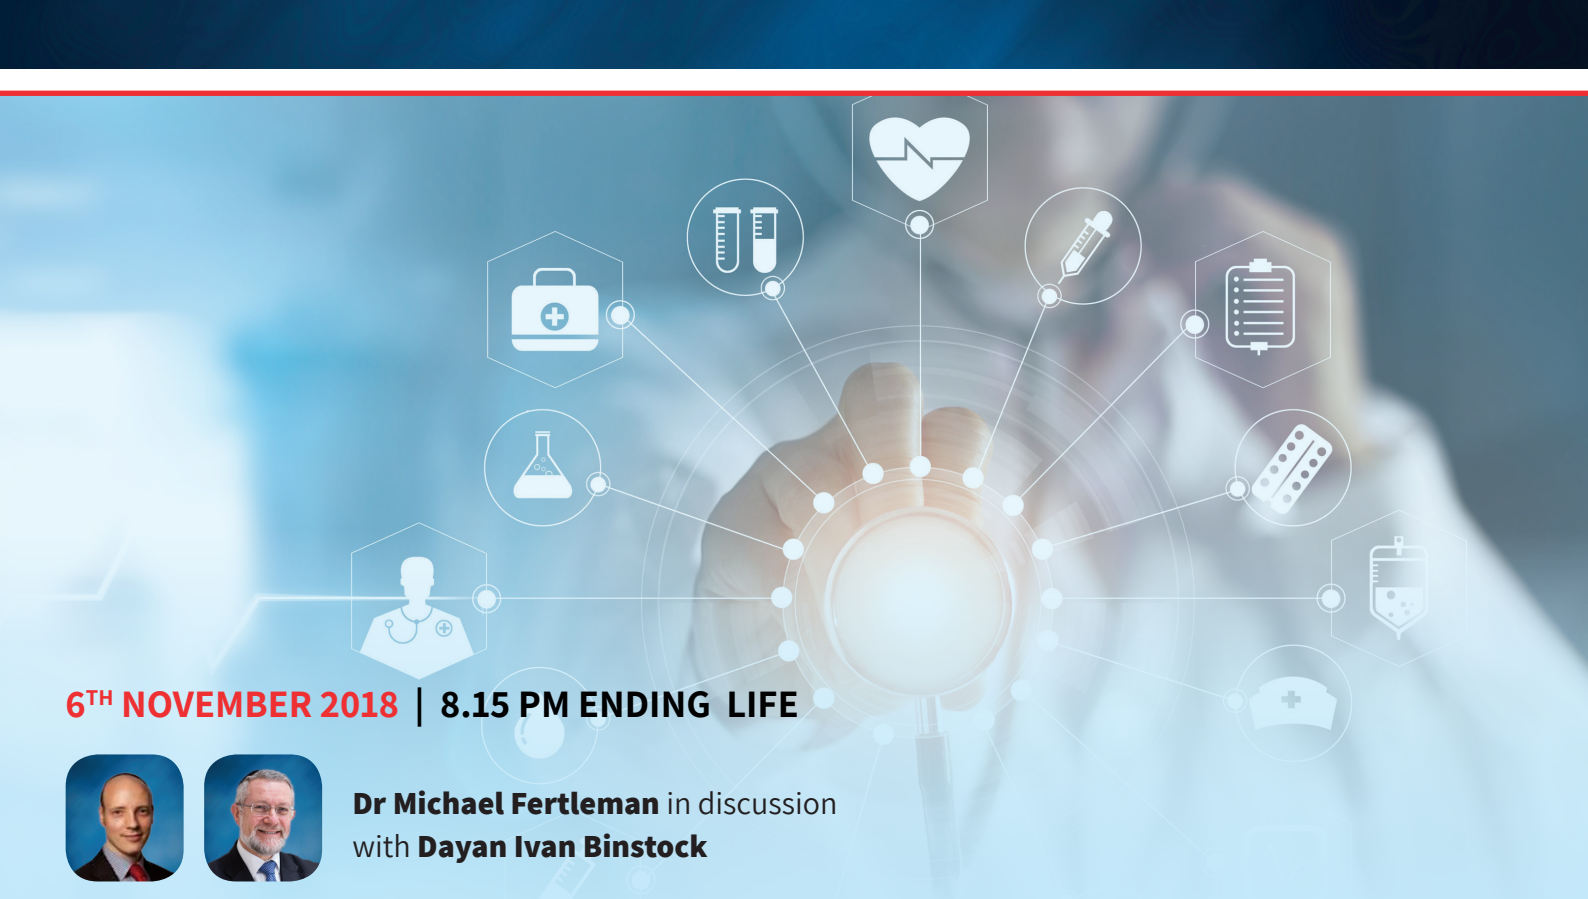

8.45 PM

Priorities in Clinical Care

20TH NOVEMBER 2018 | 8.15 PM

70 Years of the NHS - Achievements & Challenges

6TH NOVEMBER 2018 | 8.15 PM ENDING LIFE

Dr Michael Fertleman in discussion with Dayan Ivan Binstock

On 20th July 2018, the Supreme Court ruled that the Judges no longer need to be consulted for the withdrawal of feeding tubes from a patient in a persistent vegetative state, as long as the family and the doctors agree. What are the implications of this ruling, especially for the Jewish community?

13TH NOVEMBER 2018

8.00 pm | AN END TO ANTIBIOTICS?

In World Antibiotic Awareness Week, Dayan Binstock discusses the religious, ethical, and practical dimensions of the problem of increased resistance to Antibiotics.

8.45 pm | PRIORITIES IN CLINICAL CARE

Two senior clinicians, Cardiologist Professor Stephen Brecker and Pediatrician Dr Michael Markiewicz discuss the ethical issues in prioritizing care. Moderated by Dayan Ivan Binstock.

20TH NOVEMBER 2018

8.15 PM | 70 YEARS OF THE NHS - ACHIEVEMENTS AND CHALLENGES

Panel discussion with Donald Franklin, Senior Economic Advisor Department of Health; Dr Naomi Katz GP Practice Manager & Chair of the West London Clinical Commissioning Group; Dr Lionel Kopelowitz, retired GP; and Eleanor Cooke, Senior Nurse, moderated by Dr Brooke Vandermolen.

Our Speakers

DR MICHAEL FERTLEMAN

Dr Michael Fertleman is a Consultant Physician at Imperial College NHS Trust, specializing in acute medicine and geriatric medicine. He is also a qualified Barrister and a Senior Lecturer in Medical Ethics and Law at Imperial College.

PROFESSOR STEPHEN BRECKER

Professor Stephen Brecker is the Chief of Cardiology Clinical Academic Group. He is a Consultant Cardiologist at St. George's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust and Professor of Cardiology at St George's University of London.

DR MICHAEL MARKIEWICZ

Dr Michael Markiewicz is Consultant Paediatrician at Chelsea & Westminster Hospital and Clinical Director of Paediatrics and Named Doctor for Child Protection Bupa Cromwell Hospital London

DR DONALD FRANKLIN

Dr Donald Franklin has worked for many years in policy research in the health sector. He is a senior economic adviser to the Department of Health. He is the chair of The Jerusalem Interest-free Microfinance Fund and the Treasurer of Middle East North Africa Health Policy Forum. He is also a research fellow in the Department of Philosophy at University College London and the author of a number of books on philosophy and ethics

DR LIONEL KOPELOWITZ

Dr Lionel Kopelowitz qualified as a GP in 1953 and is the son of a GP. He practised both in Newcastle and London and served on the British Medical Association and the General Medical Council. From 1985 to 1991 he was President of the Board of Deputies.

DR NAOMI KATZ

Dr Naomi Katz is a GP and Practice Manager of the Grand Union Health Centre and Chair of the West London Clinical Commissioning Group

ELLE COOKE

Elle Cooke has been a nurse for over twenty years working both in the NHS and private practice. After ten years in the private sector she has returned to the NHS and she is now the Paediatric Matron for Children and Young People at Chelsea and Westminster Hospital

DR BROOKE VANDERMOLEN (CALVERT)

Dr Brooke Vandermolen (Calvert) is a doctor at Barnet and Chase Farm NHS Hospital, specialising in Obstetrics and Gynaecology.

DAYAN IVAN BINSTOCK

Dayan Ivan Binstock is the Senior Rabbi at St John's Wood Synagogue and the longest serving member of the London Beth Din. He has a special interest in Jewish Medical Ethics